i. Introduction

i.i Standing Orders in General

- a Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.
- b These Standing Orders are based upon the NALC Model Orders July 2018 (revised April 2022).
- c Standing Orders printed in bold text are statutory requirements and thus are mandatory inclusions in the Standing Orders of all Town and Parish Councils

i.ii New Legislation and Standing Orders

From time to time new legislation may be enacted that renders part or parts of these Standing Orders obsolete or that removes the statutory requirement underpinning a particular Standing Order or Orders. In such cases Council shall not be obliged to comply with any Standing Orders so affected, but may at its discretion choose to do so if permitted under law. Any unaffected Standing Orders will continue to apply and shall not be invalidated.

i.iii Role of the Chairman of the Council (Town Mayor) and the Vice-Chairman

For ease of reference and the avoidance of doubt it is here stated that Standing Order 3.n provides that: Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman of the Council (Town Mayor) may in their absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman of the Council.

i.iv Remote Meetings

- a To the extent permitted by legislation at the time of a given meeting, and subject to any conditions set out in said legislation, any reference to a Member, a member of the public, the press, or any other participant attending a meeting includes that person attending by remote access, howsoever "remote access" may be defined by said legislation.
- b As far as practicable and to the extent permitted by legislation, all Standing Orders shall apply to any lawfully convened remote meeting of full Council, Committee or Sub-Committee.

1. Rules of debate at meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k) below, only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
